SARA ELIZABETH HARRIS, Local Editor.

Listen to the chimes of the marriage bells.

Mrs. R. L. Harper and children are visiting in Ocala.

Dr. Veal, of Cotton Plant, has been in Ocala this week.

Col. T. P. Lloyd, of Inverness, is among the visiting attorneys.

Capt. W. W. Hampton was in the city this week on legal business.

Mr. Jesse Neely spent last Sunday and Monday in the city visiting his wife.

Mr. Healy says the Florida state fair will be the biggest ever held in the south.

Mrs. Juhan moved this week into the Frederick house on Ft. King avenue.

Miss Abbie Munroe has returned from her visit to the Pan-American exposition.

Mayor Fishel and Mr. James R. Moorhead returned last Saturday from their visit to Atlanta.

Mrs. Rice and Miss Graham, of Panasoffkee, were guests of the Montezuma hotel this week.

Little Mary Juhan, who has been visiting relatives in Georgia all the summer, is home again.

Mrs. Festus Biggs and little daughter are home again after spending the summer with Mrs. Biggs' parents in Atlanta.

Geo. F. Wray, the expert tuner of the Halifax Music House, Daytona, visits this city. Leave orders at Wheeler's.

Mrs. J. M. Benson and little son have returned from North Carolina and Georgia, where they have been summering.

Florida strap, nicely made and put up in hermetically sealed tin cans, is more and more commanding good and better prices.

Backache should never be neglected. It means kidney disorder, which if allowed to run too long, may result in Bright's disease, diabetes or other serious and often fatal complaints. Foley's Kidney Cure makes the kidneys well. Anti-Monopoly Drug Store.

Rev. Hugh Morris will return either today or tomorrow from Cuthbert and Macon, Ga., where he went to perform two marriage ceremonies.

Within the next month Ocala expects to beat the record in the number of her marriages. It is all owing to the number of her pretty girls.

Dizziness, loss of appetite, flatulency and nausea are all connected with dyspepsia or indigestion. Herbine will give the proper relief. Price 25 cents. Anti-Monopoly Drug Store.

Mrs. Robert Blake and children returned yesterday from Auburn and other places in Alabama, where they have been spending the summer with relatives.

Mrs. B. J. Potter and daughters, Misses Nellie and Valeta, are back from a most delightful summer spent at their summer home in Round Lake, N. Y.

White Cream Vermifuge is a highly valuable preparation, capable of clearing the system in a few hours of every worm. Price 25 cents. Anti-Monopoly Drug Store.

Mr. Charles Abson is moving his family into the McIntyre house on Ocklawaha avenue, which was recently vacated by Mr. Edward Holder.

The most stubborn cases of Bronchitis succumb to Ballard's Horehound Syrup. Price 25 and 50 cents. Anti-Monopoly Drug Store.

The Sumter County Times says that Hon. R. A. Burford's argument in the trial of W. J. Lane was one of the "best ever heard in the court room at Sumterville."

Miss Jesse Owens, of Sparr, the lady commissioner of the Florida state fair was in the city during the week. She is making very strenuous efforts to have Marion capture the prize at the fair.

Mr. John N. C. Stockton is still visiting in Europe. We are in receipt of a souvenir card from him dated Paris, September 29. His friends will be glad to know that he is having a most delightful trip.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Huber have returned from Indiana where they have been for the past three months. They left Ocala for the benefit of Mr. Huber's health and we are pleased to state that it is very much improved.

Mr. S. M. Hannah has leased the Montezuma hotel. Mr. Hanna kept the Arno at Tampa and the Inn at Port Tampa and has won a splendid reputation as a hotel man. We wish him abundant success in his new venture.

J. Odgers, of Frostburg, Md., writes: "I had a very bad attack of kidney complaint and tried Foley's Kidney Cure which gave me immediate relief, and I was perfectly cured after taking two bottles." Be sure you take Foley's. Anti-Monopoly Drug Store.

Mr. C. S. Cullen has returned from England where he has been for several months past on business and also to visit relatives. Mrs. Cullen and little son who have been spending the summer in the mountains of North Carolina returned with him.

For all fresh cuts or wounds, in either the human subject or animals, as a dressing, Ballard's Show Lintment is excellent: while for sores on working horses, especially if slow to heal, or suppurating, its healing qualities are unequalled. Price 25 cents and 50 cents. Anti-Monopoly Drug Store.

The supreme court of the state of Florida has recently handed down a decision in a case in which the S. S. O. and G. railroad was a party and the late J. H. Burchell was attorney. It is like reading prehistoric literature. The court should have more respect for the living and the dead to make these decisions public.

A childless home is a cheerless home. The maternal instinct exists in every woman, and when it is ungratified she is deprived of much of the happiness of life. It often happens that childlessness is due to some cause which can be removed, and often is removed by the use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. The vigor and vitality which this remedy imparts to the delicate womanly organs, puts them in a condition of normal health, the lack of which is often the sole obstruction to maternity. Every woman should read Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser, a book containing 1008 pages and 700 illustrations. It is sent entirely free on receipt of stamps to pay expense of mailing only. Send twenty-one one-cent stamps for the paper bound volume, or thirty one stamps for the cloth covered. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, 663 Main street, Buffalo, N. Y.

A WEEK OF MARRIAGES.

Five Couples in Ocala and Marion County United in Marriage During the Past Week.

GROTHE—SUDENDORF.

Last Sunday afternoon at his home in this city, Dr. Otto Grothe, a well known chemist, and Miss Anna Sudendorf were married. This is rather a romantic marriage, the courtship having been carried on entire by correspondence, the young bride coming over from Germany to marry Dr. Grothe.

Dr. and Mrs. Grothe have gone to Tampa to spend the honeymoon.

COWAN—WASSON.

Last Sunday in Jacksonville, Mr. Grant Cowan and Mrs. Julia Wasson, of New York City, were united in marriage.

Mr. Cowan is one of Ocala's most efficient stenographers and Mrs. Cowan is well known in this city, where she resided a number of years.

Mr. and Mrs. Cowan have returned to the city and will make this their home.

PORTER—MANN.

Monday morning at 10:30 o'clock at the Episcopal church Rev. C. M. Gray united in the holy bonds of wedlock, Miss Pearl G. Mann, of this city, and Mr. William M. Porter, of Jacksonville.

The exact date of this marriage was not known, and was a surprise to a great many of the friends of both parties.

The bride entered the church on the arm of her uncle, Mr. G. T. Maughs, who gave her away. She was attended by her sister, Miss Cecile Mann, and Mr. George C. Pasteur was the best man.

The bride is a daughter, of Mr. L. W. Mann, of this city. She has always lived in Ocala, and by her gracious manners has won a large number of friends, who wish for her a happy married life.

Mr. Porter came to Ocala about five years ago from Citra and was with H. B. Masters for several years. Nearly a year ago he accepted a position as traveling salesman for Bartleson Bros., of Jacksonville.

He is a bright young business man and has hosts of friends who predict for him a great success.

CARTER—TURNER.

On Wednesday evening, October ninth, at eight o'clock at the Baptist church at Fellowship was the scene of a beautiful wedding, when Miss Lila Carter, a daughter of the late Mr. Faulkner Carter and Mrs. Eliza Carter, pioneer citizens of Marion county, and Mr. Andrew Turner were united in marriage.

The church had been very prettily and tastefully decorated by the friends of the bride and groom with autumn flowers and evergreens.

Promptly at eight o'clock to the strains of the wedding march played by Miss Maude Moser, the bridal party entered the church. Miss Jessie Carter, a sister of the bride, was the maid of honor, and Mr. Turner, a brother of the groom, acted as best man. The other attendants were Miss Bernita Barco and Mr. Ed Weathers. The ushers were Messrs. Bell and Hutchens.

After the marriage a large reception and old-time wedding supper was held at the home of the bride.

Mr. and Mrs. Turner were the recipients of many handsome wedding presents.

HARRISON—WEATHERS.

At Cotton Plant Sunday morning Mr. Vance Weathers, of Fellowship, and Miss Maudie Harrison, of York, were married, Rev. Thomas Armistead, officiating.

Both the bride and groom are well known all over the county, their parents being old pioneer settlers of Marion county.

They will make their home with the groom's parents for the present.

To all these happy couples the Ocala Banner extends its heartiest congratulations and best wishes.

Working 24 Hours a Day.

There's no rest for those tireless little workers—Dr. King's New Life Pills. Millions are always busy curing torpid liver, jaundice, biliousness, fever and ague. They banish sick headache, drive out malaria. Never gripe or weaken. Small, taste nice, work wonders. Try them, 25c, at Garrett and Gerig's.
